Evolving as New Comers: How to Master the Canadian Experience Barrier

As new comers one must evolve with the culture. This means knowing how to navigate and confidently align yourself for successful interviews.

Join us One-On-One in an interactive virtual session with Brian G. Bachand on Tuesday, April 28, 2020 at 7:30 pm EST where Brian will talk about myths around Canadian work experience, how to tackle this issue, and how we can tap the Canadian job market.

Brian was born and raised in the United States. He came to Canada in 2012 from New York City. He is now a dual US / Canadian citizen as of May 2019. Prior to launching his own company, evolution evolution, this past November, he had a successful career in leading teams as a professional fundraiser and Partner in executive recruitment. He is a Board of Director for the Gardiner Museum in Toronto and currently the Vice-Chair of the Board for ACCES Employment.
